THE BULLETIN – NOTICES

12 August, Trinity 11

Tuesday coffee morning raised £93.19 this week. Thank you.

200 CLUB: After several years as organiser of the 200 Club, Julian Tremayne is stepping down and we are therefore looking for someone to take over from Julian.

We would like to thank Julian for his hard work in running and promoting the 200 Club which has raised valuable funds for the church whilst giving everyone the opportunity to enter the monthly and quarterly draws and win a treat for themselves.

If you are interested in running this activity on behalf of the church please contact Sue or Carole in the church office (01759 306045) or speak with Julian who will be able to give you a few more details on what is required.

Londesborough: All Saints Church will be open to visitors every Wednesday, 10-00am to 4-00pm, until September.

Tea/coffee will be available from 10-00am to 12-00noon.

Prayer during the vacancy:

We continue to meet together each Thursday evening to pray together about the appointment of our new vicar.

During August we will meet each Thursday at 7.00pm in Huggate church.

During September we will meet each Thursday at 7.30pm in Shiptonthorpe but not in the church as it is not in use at the moment. We will meet by kind invitation in the home of Mike and Freda Bailey: Rose Villa, Town Street, Shiptonthorpe - take the second turning off the A1079 from Pocklington into Shiptonthorpe village. Rose Villa is just a few houses past the church on the left.

Flower Festival 14 -18 September:

www.pockflowerfestival.org.uk

There is a very helpful web site concerning the flower festival which has been built by Les Slow and is now fully accessible. Please have a look at it and make diary notes of the festival days, preview evening and the concert. There will be more details over the next weeks and months .

Preview Evening Tickets £15

Tickets are now sold out. If you would like to be added to the waiting list for any returns, please contact the Church Office.

We'll gather lilacs and keep the home fires burning in Pocklington

A concert, as part of the Remember Rejoice Flower Festival on Saturday 15 September at 7.30 pm will feature popular songs and anthems by Ivor Novello and others. Readings will include the works of Rupert Brooke and Siegfried Sassoon.

Michael Cooper, Organist at All Saints Church and Musical Director of the Pocklington Singers, will bring along some friends to entertain with memories of World War 1.

Why not join us and be surrounded by the stunning displays in the church as part of our Commemoration Weekend? Tickets cost £10 and are available from the Church Office (01759 306045) or the Box Office 07894 004425.

Stewards for the Flower Festival

During the Festival, Stewards will be required to be on duty at various stations around the church to offer help and advice, and to ensure that visitors are able to fully appreciate the displays in an unhurried yet orderly manner. If you would like to assist by being a Steward please contact Betty Douglas (01759 303486) or the Parish Office (01759 306045) for more information.

Volunteers needed: During the festival we will be having refreshments so if you are able to help with either staffing the cafe or able to bake scones etc please will you let Carole Laws know on Tel 304307 or 306045 (church office).
