The Collect for 28th May

God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Readings for 28th May

Psalm 104: 26-36
 Acts 2: 1-21
 John 20: 19-23

PRAYER DIARY

Holy Spirit, rain down upon us as we pray. Fall upon your church just as at that first Pentecost, when your mighty outpouring of power transformed lives and ignited the life of the church.

Holy Spirit, we pray for all who communicate the gospel to the world. Give them words to which people can relate and understand.

We pray for our world to be purified and rid of all the evils of:

war - especially in Ukraine and Sudan injustice hatred
 discrimination and apathy

We pray for the young people who hang about the streets, easy targets for those who seek to groom, manipulate and entice our youngsters into drink, drugs, and crime.

Spirit of Pentecost breathe on us, that we may witness to the world the comfort, meaning and love that you offer

Moonlight, Summer Moonlight by Emily Jane Brontë

'Tis moonlight, summer moonlight,
All soft and still and fair;
The solemn hour of midnight
Breathes sweet thoughts everywhere,

But most where trees are sending
Their breezy boughs on high,
Or stooping low are lending
A shelter from the sky.

And there in those wild bowers
A lovely form is laid;
Green grass and dew-steeped flowers
Wave gently round her head.
